

Bad Spells

"I suffered, during girlhood, from womanly weakness," writes Mrs. Mollie Navy, of Walnut, N. C. "At last, I was almost bed-ridden, and had to give up. We had three doctors. All the time, I was getting worse. I had bad spells, that lasted from 7 to 28 days. In one week, after I gave Cardui a trial, I could eat, sleep, and joke, as well as anybody. In 8 weeks, I was well. I had been an invalid for 5 weary years! Cardui relieved me, when everything else failed."

A Roland For an Oliver. Although no saying is in more common use than "Roland for an Oliver," yet few are acquainted with its origin. The expression signifies the giving of an equivalent. Roland and Oliver were two comrades who were famous knights in romance known in early French history for their valor. The wonderful achievements of the one can only be equaled by those of the other, and so we have the phrase, "Roland for an Oliver."

Saving The Heifer Calves.

We need all our farmers' attention called to the importance of saving the heifer calves. There is a great shortage in beef cattle, and still everywhere you go you see a reckless slaughter of young animals. Around the cities they are killing them for veal. In noticing the shipment of cattle to markets we see many young heifers in the lot. What we wish to do is to awaken the public conscience to the importance of this matter. If you have a heifer calf to sell, try to place it with a farmer and not a butcher. If you are farming plan to have more pasturage, to grow more feed and carry increased head of cattle on your farm. There is not only money in it, but it is the wise policy to pursue. Look around you, and help matters in this respect. Our farmers need to study conditions and then to work to better them. That is what we are here for. It is suicidal murder to kill young calves, when we have such a dearth of cattle. If you happen to have an over-supply sell them to your neighbor, and get him interested in raising more cattle.—Southern Cultivator.

Women in Suicide Epidemic. No fewer than five suicides, all of women, were committed in Paris one recent day. A mother and her daughter took cyanide of potassium because they had no food for three days. The daughter was a lyric artist. A young Austrian girl of 18 threw herself onto the rails as a train was entering the Marbeuf station of the Metro. A woman of 40 took arsenic, and the fifth, who was 27, shot herself through the heart.

Gentlemen:—

In traveling through North Carolina the past fall buying peanuts for Rodgers, McCabe & Co., I had occasion to see your Lilliston Peanut Picker in operation in several localities; in each case I found them doing superb work.

I bought several large lots of peanuts from the various farmers, and in each case I paid 1/2c to 3/4c per pound more for the Lilliston picked peanuts than I did for peanuts picked by other machines working in the same crop.

I take great pleasure in recommending the Lilliston Peanut Picker to all peanut growers, as I consider it the best on the market.

Yours very truly,
(Signed) FRANK T. PLUMMER.
(Peanut Buyer.)

THE 1913

National Machine Corporation,
Suffolk, Va.

Dear Sirs:—

The Picker which I bought of you last fall did its work satisfactory to all. I picked 4,345 bushels, paid for my picker the first season, wasn't out a cent for repairs and consider I have a picker as good as new. My patrons got fourteen cents a bushel more for their peanuts than others got for peanuts threshed. I had applicants that wanted me to pick their crops fifty miles from home. That alone speaks enough for your picker, as nobody wants their peanuts threshed that have ever heard of the Lilliston Peanut Picker.

Yours very truly,
(Signed) EDD HULSE.

WHAT THE "LILLISTON" DOES.

The peanut vines are fed to the machine, passing through springs that are arranged over a wire netting. The springs break up the vines and the wire pulls off the nuts. The nuts drop on a conveyer belt and then carried through a suction system where the trash, pods and all dirt are separated. Picks Spanish or Virginia peanuts, leaves them perfect, no cracked nuts. The peanut vines make the best hay and bring a good price, are left in a convenient place to be baled. Prompt and safe shipments are made.

This season's supply is limited. We want to place one in your section. The man who delays never gets anything. Write for catalogue, prices and full information RIGHT NOW WHILE YOU THINK OF IT.
